

Three Portraits

I wrote these songs for Janet Obermeyer in the summer of 1991. They were the first songs that I set to the poetry of John Ferns, a fellow citizen of Dundas and then Professor of English at McMaster University. From his anthology I chose poems about creative writers and artists from different eras.